

Ren M. Jardine

805-868-4160 | dennerren@gmail.com

Objective: To obtain a working knowledge and experience through an internship in my field

Education

- Dean's Honor Roll student in the Master's program in Computer Science at California State University, Sacramento, expected graduation Spring of 2019
 - Courses: Programming Concepts and Methodology II, Discrete Structures for Computer Science, Introduction to Computer Architecture, Introduction to Systems Programming in UNIX, Data Structures and Algorithm Analysis, Computer Software Engineering
 - Member of Association for Computing Machinery
-

Technical Skills

- Well versed in Java
 - Comfortable in Assembly Language
 - Comfortable in C
 - General working knowledge of HTML
 - Basic working knowledge of GUI
 - Familiar with Windows, Linux and Unix operating systems
 - Basic understanding of MySQL and databases
 - Very cooperative in a team setting
 - Fully commits to every project assigned
 - Works well through stressful situations
-

Experience

- Using Java since high school, beginning in August of 2013, for various projects with arrays, linked lists, queues and decks including a simple GUI calculator
 - Learning Assembly since August of 2016 culminating with a trick gambling game project
 - Began learning C, HTML and navigating Linux systems since December of 2016, reinforced in class projects
 - Worked as a Stage Manager, managing the stage and working for the director, or Assistant Stage Manager, often filling in for the Stage Manager when necessary, on ten community and college theater productions beginning August of 2013
 - Worked as a Big Sister for Big Brothers, Big Sisters of America for four years beginning August of 2011 mentoring elementary aged children every Friday after school
-

Abilities and Activities

- Fluent in French
- Can read Spanish
- Simple knowledge of Italian